INDUSTRY PROFESSIONAL: Defined as anyone employed by a drug, device, or diagnostic company. The primary goal of the conference is to educate practicing clinicians on the latest advances and strategies in the care of cancer patients. Space is limited for in-person registration, to ensure sufficient seats are available for practicing clinicians.

Conference Objectives

To increase physicians' competence and apply this information to their patient population for Bladder, Breast, Colon, Gynecologic, Head and Neck, Kidney, Liver, Leukemia, Lymphoma, Melanoma, Myeloma, Pancreatic, Prostate, and Thoracic Cancers.

- Summarize the data presented at ASCO® Annual Meeting 2025 and practice application in clinical settings.
- Examine advances in treatment strategies for patients with hematologic malignancies and solid tumors.
- Evaluate the role of new diagnostic techniques and therapeutic approaches in the care and management of cancer patients.
- Interpret updates in evidence-based guidelines, regulations, clinical and translational research, and precision medicine.

Intended Audience

All physicians including Medical and Hematology Oncologists, Radiation Oncologists, Surgical Oncologists, General Surgeons, Plastic Surgeons, Colorectal Surgeons, Dermatologists, Pulmonologists, Oral Surgeons, Otolaryngologists, Neuro Oncologists, Urologists, Nephrologists, Gastroenterologists, Gynecologic Oncologists, Obstetrics & Gynecologists, Thoracic Surgeons, Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Pathologists, Radiologists, Residents, Fellows, Medical Students, Oncology Nurse Practitioners, Oncology Nurses, and other Allied Health Care Professionals.

Accessibility

AdventHealth is committed to making its activities accessible to all individuals. If you have an accessibility request, please submit a description of your needs, along with your registration, to assure that you will be able to participate in the activity.

Continuing Education
