

Jonathan Chan, MD, CPHQ, CPPS, FAAP

Attending Physician, Pediatric Critical Care Medicine, AdventHealth for Children
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Loma Linda University School of Medicine
Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, University of Central Florida College of Medicine

Dr. Chan joined AdventHealth for Children in 2018 after completing his fellowship training in pediatric critical care at Children's National Medical Center in Washington, D.C. He was formerly trained in Internal Medicine/Pediatrics at University of South Florida in Tampa, FL. He currently has an active role in teaching and mentoring the pediatric residents at AdventHealth for Children. Most recently, he obtained professional certification in Healthcare Quality and Patient Safety and has begun incorporating this specialized knowledge through various avenues within the ICU and throughout AdventHealth. He went into critical care to save the lives of his ICU patients, but more importantly to improve their long-term outcomes.
