

What Do You Need to Know About Learning Theories to be Great Teachers

Presented by:
Sandra Jarvis-Selinger, PHD.

When:
Friday, March 22, 2019
8:00 – 9:00 am

Where:
AdventHealth Orlando
Ginsburg Tower
Werner Auditorium
601 East Rollins Street

Professor & Associate Dean at University of British Columbia

Academic in the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences

*Acting Associate Provost
Health at UBC*

*Educational specialist and researcher in the area of Human Learning,
Development and Instruction*

Invited:
Physicians, clinical support and administrative health care professionals

The objectives of this Surgery Grand Rounds are to:

1. Explore how learning theories can positively impact their approach to teaching and precepting.
2. Discuss approaches to feedback that will support student learning.

To Register: Please visit FhCME.com

For more information: Contact Maria Cepero at (407) 303-7203 or Maria.Cepero@Adventhealth.com

Disclosures: Dr. Jarvis does not have any financial relationships relevant to this presentation to disclose. The planners of this activity have disclosed no financial relationship relevant to the content to be presented. AdventHealth Orlando CPD Committee members have no financial relationships with any proprietary entity producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. Maryam Kashi, DO, a member of the CPD Committee has relationships with Allergan/Ironwood and Synergy as part of their Speakers Bureau.Co AdventHealth is committed to making its activities accessible to all individuals. If you have a disability, please submit a description of your needs, along with your registration, to assure that you will be able to participate in the activity .